PHILIPPINE PUPPETEERS PARTICIPATE IN HARMONY WORLD PUPPET CARNIVAL

Talented Pinoy Puppeteer Wanlu Lunaria and his puppets are participating in Harmony World Puppet Carnival 2014 in Bangkok, Thailand, organized by the Thai Ministry of Culture, from 01 to 10 November 2014.

The carnival is participated by 165 troupes from 60 countries. The event serves as a platform for puppeteers, puppet lovers, puppet families, as well as those from other related fields of production such as film and animation, to meet and illustrate competency and diversity of art and culture.

Ambassador Jocelyn Batoon-Garcia attended the opening ceremony of the event on 01 November 2014, at Sanam Luang (The Royal Ground) and met with Mr. Lunaria and members of his group.

Wanlu and his puppets are scheduled to perform on 5 November 2014, at 5:00 pm, at Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn (Soonmanut) Anthropology Center located at 20 Baromaratchachonnani Rd, Taling Chan, Bangkok 10170.
